

57a Dickson Street Lambton NSW

6 2

Six bedroom share accommodation property in a prime central position within walking distance to Lambton shopping precinct.

This property is a past church building which has been modified internally to maximise rental return. Options are varied and may profit from further investigation.

Street view retains the buildings original character with entry into the original foyer then through to dormitory style accommodation.

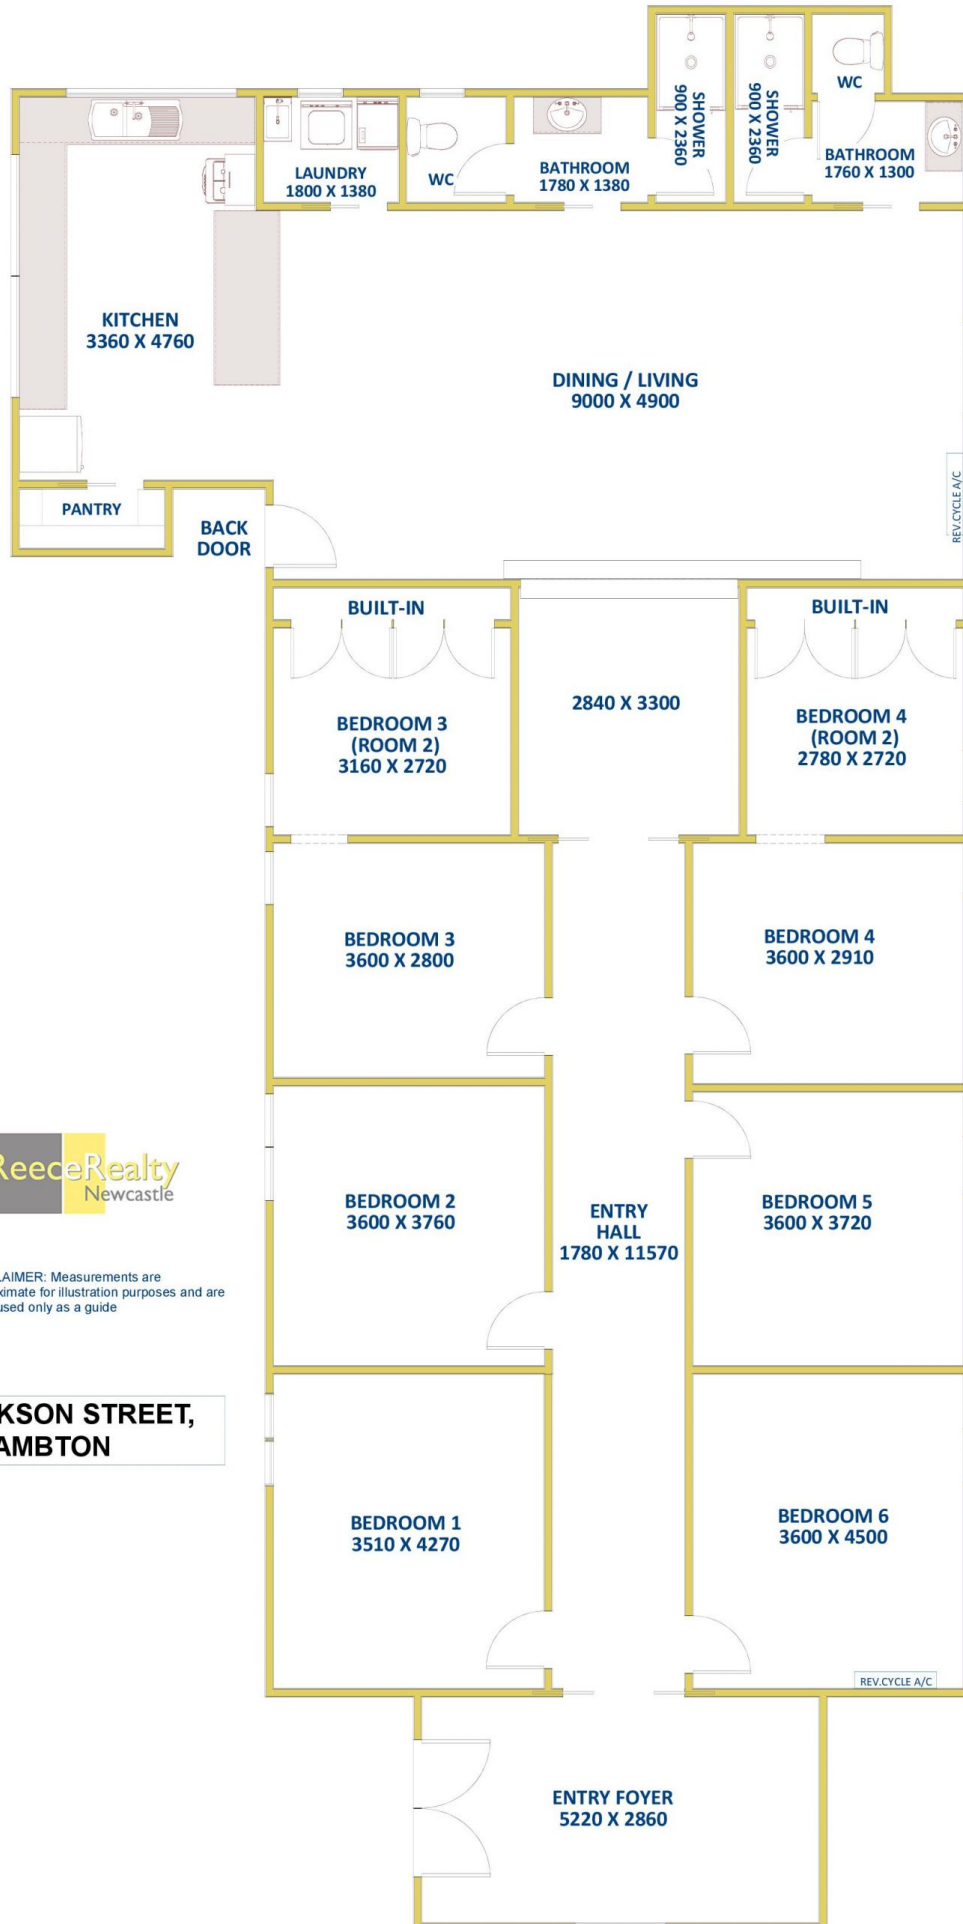

Four of the bedrooms are large, offering a generous amount of space for each tenant, with secure locks and furnishing supplied. There are two bedrooms that include an adjoining sitting room.

From the hall there is an open plan communal living area
