

35 George Street East Maitland NSW

3 1 1

Sitting pretty on an elevated 569m2 corner block with views toward Rosebrook ranges is an elegantly renovated solid brick family home in this desired suburb close to East Maitland shopping village, schools and public transport. Timeless art deco flourishes, indicative of its build time, have been sympathetically incorporated into the luxurious, modernised interior and formal gardens. Polished hardwood floors and high ceilings with their decorative cornices feature throughout.

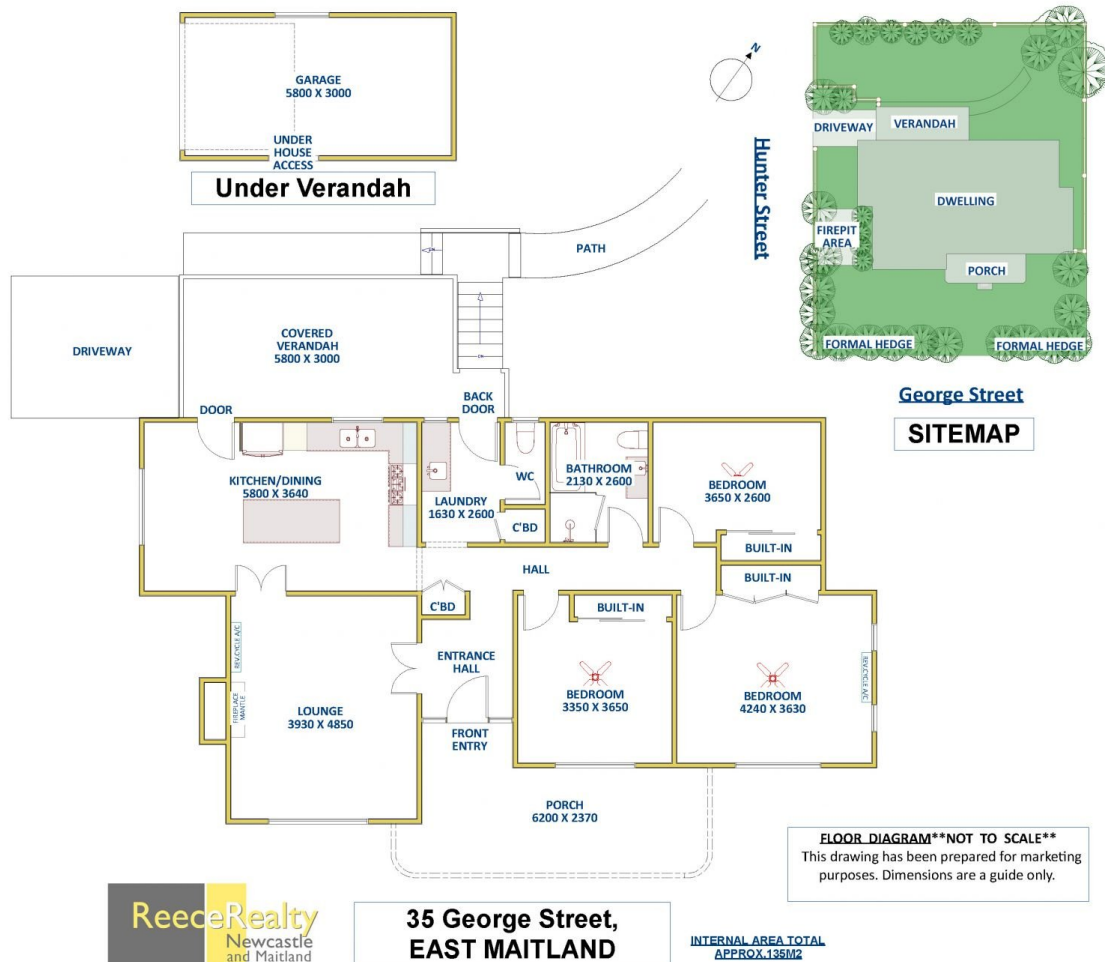

A short garden path directs you through meticulous privacy hedges and across the lawn to the wide porch and front entry. Glass French doors open from an entrance hall into the spacious formal lounge featuring art deco fireplace mantle and reverse cycle air conditioning and with views
